

DAERA urges vigilance as Asian hornet monitoring begins in Dundonald

The Department of Agriculture, Environment and Rural Affairs (DAERA) is urging the public to remain vigilant for sightings of Asian hornets as monitoring activity begins in the Dundonald area of Belfast.

---

Givan: Pre-School Inclusion Fund is delivering targeted support for children with special educational needs (SEN)

Education Minister Paul Givan has seen first-hand how the Pre-School Inclusion Fund (PSIF) is enhancing support for children with special educational needs (SEN), during a visit to Holywood Nursery School.

---

Lyons launches photography exhibition exploring identity, belonging, and cultural heritage

Communities Minister Gordon Lyons has launched a landmark photography exhibition exploring identity, belonging, and cultural heritage in Northern Ireland at the Belfast Exposed gallery.

---

Statement from DAERA Minister

following talks with Isle of Man government on NI fishing crew rights

Agriculture, Environment and Rural Affairs Minister for Northern Ireland, Andrew Muir, has met with Isle of Man government ministers to discuss NI fishing crew rights.

---

Kimmins freezes Translink fares for second consecutive year

Infrastructure Minister Liz Kimmins has confirmed that Translink fares will remain unchanged for a second year in a row, despite significant financial pressures across the public transport system.