

Modern slavery and human trafficking strategy 2024-27 launched

Justice Minister Naomi Long has launched a new three-year strategy to tackle modern slavery and trafficking in Northern Ireland.

Minister Muir launches consultation on marine licensing fees

A consultation on a review of the fees paid for marine licences has been launched by DAERA Minister Andrew Muir.

Substantial fall in farm incomes disappointing – Muir

DAERA Minister Andrew Muir has described the substantial fall in farm incomes for 2023 as disappointing but a reflection of the fall in milk prices and the continued elevation of input costs.

Long welcomes suspension of strike action

The Justice Minister Naomi Long welcomes the suspension of industrial action by police civilian staff. The news comes following a constructive and positive meeting yesterday hosted by the Minister with the PSNI, NIPB and NIPSA to discuss the Revised Environmental Allowance (REA) for police civilian staff.

Southern Health and Social Care Trust Urology Lookback Review Activity and Outcomes Report for Cohort 2

The Department of Health welcomes the announcement today by the Southern Health and Social Care Trust regarding the publication of the “SHSCT Urology Lookback Review Activity and Outcomes Report for Cohort 2”.