

A momentous day as one million people vaccinated – Foster and O’Neill

The vaccination of more than one million people here is momentous for our whole society, the First Minister and deputy First Minister have said.

---

New chapter as libraries prepare for re-opening – Hargey

As libraries prepare to re-open from May 24, Communities Minister Deirdre Hargey visited Libraries NI’s headquarters in Lisburn to see the services the community will be able to enjoy.

---

Dodds praises innovation, creativity and resilience of Spirit AeroSystems

Economy Minister Diane Dodds has praised the resilience, innovation and creativity of management and staff at Spirit AeroSystems during a visit to the wing factory at the company’s Belfast site.

---

Hargey establishes Culture, Arts & Heritage Recovery Taskforce

Communities Minister Deirdre Hargey has established a Culture, Arts & Heritage Recovery Taskforce to consider measures to support re-opening and recovery in the short-term as they emerge from the pandemic and to pave the way for a longer term strategy for the culture, arts and heritage sectors.

---

Mallon encourages the public to get involved in planning

Infrastructure Minister Nichola Mallon is encouraging the public to get involved in planning.