

Ministers welcome further moves out of restrictions

The latest steps forward on the pathway out of restrictions are good news for our society, the First Minister and deputy first Minister have said.

Consultation opens on Statutory Duty of Candour and Being Open Framework

Health Minister Robin Swann has launched a 16 week consultation on draft policy proposals for the statutory Duty of Candour and a Being Open Framework.

Ministers thank public ahead of school return

The Health and Education Ministers have thanked the public for their collective effort in helping schools return.

NI vaccine total hits the one million mark

Health Minister Robin Swann has hailed “another landmark to welcome” as the number of COVID-19 vaccines administered in Northern Ireland passed the one million mark.

Foster and O'Neill express sympathy following death of Prince Philip

On behalf of the Northern Ireland Executive, First Minister Arlene Foster and deputy First Minister Michelle O'Neill have expressed their sympathies following the death of the Duke of Edinburgh