

Poots visits area affected by 2017 North West flooding

Agriculture, Environment and Rural Affairs Minister Edwin Poots has visited a farming business in the Owenkillew river valley at the invitation of the UFU, to discuss the ongoing impacts of the August 2017 flooding in the area and subsequent land slippage.

Evaluation of Support Hubs in Northern Ireland published today

The Department of Justice (DoJ) today published a Research Bulletin into the Evaluation of Support Hubs in Northern Ireland.

Road improvement scheme for Barnfield Road, Lisburn

A £155,000 road improvement scheme on the Barnfield Road, Lisburn will commence on Monday 29 March.

Labour market statistics

The labour market statistics were published today by the Northern Ireland Statistics and Research Agency.

Long: Delivering change in the civil and family justice is vital to meet the needs of citizens

Justice Minister Naomi Long today outlined plans for modernising civil and family justice within the current mandate to the Northern Ireland Assembly.