

Weir announces new legislation to address bullying in schools

Education Minister, Peter Weir, has today announced that legislation to address bullying in schools will come into operation in Northern Ireland on 1 September 2021.

Electricity Consumption and Renewable Generation in Northern Ireland: Year Ending December 2020

A report detailing the percentage of electricity consumption in Northern Ireland generated from renewable sources has been published today.

Holy Trinity is exemplar of community spirit – O'Neill

The deputy First Minister Michelle O'Neill has praised Holy Trinity College in Cookstown for their support of young people and families during the pandemic.

Health Minister launches Mental Health Champion Recruitment Process

Health Minister Robin Swann today launched his Department's recruitment competition seeking to appoint a permanent Mental Health Champion for Northern Ireland.

Mother and Baby and Magdalene Laundry Institutions – Truth Recovery Design Team Announced

A team of experts who will work in partnership with victims and survivors of Mother and Baby and Magdalene Laundry Institutions to establish the terms of reference for a fully independent investigation has been announced.