

Legislation protecting private renters extended

Communities Minister Deirdre Hargey has announced that due to the ongoing pandemic she is extending the legislation protecting private renters from eviction to 30 September 2021.

Long launches consultations on Modern Slavery Transparency in Supply Chains (TISC)

Justice Minister Naomi Long has today launched two consultation documents on measures to eradicate modern slavery from the supply chains of public and commercial sector organisations.

Regional hubs signal new era for Civil Service – Murphy

Finance Minister Conor Murphy has today announced plans for a number of new civil service regional hubs.

Dodds announces KPMG to create 200 jobs and invest £14m in new Belfast Centre of Excellence

Economy Minister Diane Dodds today announced KPMG, one of the world's top four accounting firms, is investing £14million in its Belfast operation and will create 200 new jobs.

Weir announces further measures to support childcare providers

Education Minister, Peter Weir today announced an extension to the Covid-19 Childcare Temporary Closure fund for the period January to March 2021.