

Competition for Independent Assessor of PSNI Recruitment Vetting launched

Justice Minister Naomi Long has launched a recruitment competition for the appointment of an Independent Assessor of PSNI Recruitment Vetting.

LED street lighting upgrade for Newcastle Main Street

A £90,000 LED street lighting upgrade scheme on the Main Street, Newcastle is due to commence on 25 January 2021.

First Minister and deputy First Minister condemn 'despicable' attack on Belfast Multi-Cultural Association

First Minister Arlene Foster and deputy First Minister Michelle O'Neill have condemned last night's attack on Belfast Multi-Cultural Association, which is being investigated as a hate crime.

Travel Corridor Suspended

The UK Government has announced that it is to suspend the travel corridor system until at least 15 February.

We cannot ease up in our fightback – Health Minister

That was the message from Health Minister Robin Swann as Northern Ireland's most recent Covid-19 figures were announced and as hospitals here prepare for the full brunt of the latest surge.