

Health Minister welcomes Covid-19 vaccine announcement

Health Minister Robin Swann has hailed a “hugely significant day for Northern Ireland” with the announcement that the first Covid-19 vaccine has been approved for widespread use.

Covid-19 press conference – 02 December 2020

The First Minister Arlene Foster, deputy First Minister Michelle O’Neill and Health Minister Robin Swann welcome momentous milestone as vaccine is approved. Ministers urge people to remain vigilant and stay safe.

Road resurfacing scheme for Quay Road, Ballycastle

A £105,000 carriageway resurfacing scheme on Quay Road, Ballycastle will commence on Monday 7 December 2020.

Ní Chuilín allocates further funding for individuals in the arts and creative economy

Individuals who work across the arts and wider creative economy are set to benefit from a further £3.25million of funding, Communities Minister Carál Ní Chuilín has announced.

Ministers announce new support services for HIA survivors

First Minister Arlene Foster and deputy First Minister Michelle O'Neill have announced a range of support measures for survivors of Historical Institutional Abuse.