

Kilrea Bridge Update – Interim measures to reopen road to light vehicles before Christmas

The Department for Infrastructure has announced plans that could see the Kilrea Bridge reopen to cars and light vehicles before Christmas.

Kimmins announces £180,000 road improvement scheme for B4 Lack Main Street

Infrastructure Minister Liz Kimmins has announced that a £180,000 carriageway resurfacing scheme on the B4 Lack Main Street will commence on Monday 10 November 2025.

Progress on skills gap welcome, but a continued focus on skills is key

The Department for the Economy today published the findings of the Northern Ireland Employer Skills Survey 2024, which examines the skills challenges faced by businesses.

Minister confirms restoration of pay parity for health service staff

Health Minister Mike Nesbitt has today issued a statement as follows:

Northern Ireland Apprenticeship Week 2026: Invest in Talent – Your Future Business

Economy Minister Dr Caoimhe Archibald has announced the dates for Northern Ireland Apprenticeship Week 2026.