

Rolling testing programme for care homes

Health Minister Robin Swann has announced a rolling programme of Covid-19 testing in Northern Ireland's care homes.

Infrastructure Minister Mallon hosts NI Roundtable as part of United Nations Climate Change Conference and calls for more ambitious targets to tackle the climate emergency

Infrastructure Minister Nichola Mallon MLA has hosted a virtual stakeholder NI roundtable on climate change and has called on everyone to become a green champion.

Infrastructure Minister announces review to future-proof York Street Interchange

Infrastructure Minister Nichola Mallon has provided an update on next steps for the York Street Interchange scheme in Belfast by announcing the terms of reference for a new review that will consider how best to proceed, in advance of moving to the procurement phase of the project through discussions with specialists and stakeholders.

'We must redouble efforts to tackle obesity'

Following the launch of the UK Government's new obesity strategy, the Health Minister Robin Swann has said that we must all redouble efforts to address the issue.

Carve out a career in Heritage Skills

The Department for Communities' Historic Environment Division (HED) in partnership with The Prince's Foundation have today launched the NI Heritage Skills Programme.