

Ní Chuilín praises libraries for their work during lockdown

Communities Minister Carál Ní Chuilín has confirmed that current restrictions on libraries will be relaxed to allow their reopening in a manner which maximises safety for the public and staff.

Dodds welcomes £33.1million funding for zero-emissions maritime research project

Economy Minister Diane Dodds has today welcomed the UK Government announcement of £33.1million funding for a local maritime project to design and build zero emissions ferries in Belfast

Cross government response to tackling domestic and sexual abuse during Covid-19

Health Minister Robin Swann, Justice Minister Naomi Long, and Communities Minister Caral Ni Chuilin are reminding people that if anyone is at risk of, or experiencing domestic or sexual abuse, help is still available.

Publication of NI Cancer Waiting Times Statistics Release (January – March 2020)

The Department of Health today published the Northern Ireland Cancer Waiting Times Statistics Release for January, February and March 2020.

Publication of General Pharmaceutical Service Statistics for Northern Ireland 2019/20

The HSC Business Services Organisation (BSO) has today published its first annual General Pharmaceutical Service Statistics for Northern Ireland.