

“Work together to help protect vital services”: Nesbitt

Health Minister Mike Nesbitt has today launched the Department’s 2025/26 Overarching Winter Preparedness Plan, setting out key measures to protect health and social care services during another challenging winter period.

Givan launches consultation on new organisation to support controlled schools

Education Minister Paul Givan has today launched a public consultation on proposals to establish a new organisation to support controlled schools across Northern Ireland.

Review of Invest NI investments published

Economy Minister Dr Caoimhe Archibald has responded to the publication of a review of Invest NI investments that she commissioned to ensure it is not supporting projects that arm Israel.

Education Minister welcomes PAC focus on urgent need for investment in the schools’ estate

Education Minister Paul Givan has welcomed the publication of the Public Accounts Committee (PAC) report into the management of the schools’ estate, recognising that it brings into sharp focus the critical and long-standing issues of school infrastructure and funding.

Adult and Youth Reoffending in Northern Ireland (2022/23 Cohort) Published Today

The Department of Justice (DoJ) today published Research and Statistics Bulletin: 'Adult and Youth Reoffending In Northern Ireland (2022/23 Cohort)'.