

Minister launches new Careers Guide to support ethnic minority communities

Economy Minister Dr Caoimhe Archibald has launched a new guide designed to help ethnic minority communities in Northern Ireland access careers information and opportunities.

DAERA announces financial support for pre-movement testing in Bluetongue Temporary Control Zone

DAERA Minister Andrew Muir has today announced that some financial support will be provided for the pre-movement testing of high-risk animals out of the current Bluetongue Virus (BTV) Temporary Control Zone (TCZ).

Minister Muir outlines vision for resilient agriculture sector at Oxford Farming Conference

DAERA Minister Andrew Muir has today set out his vision for a thriving, resilient and environmentally sustainable future for Northern Ireland agriculture during his address to the Oxford Farming Conference.

December stocking of Departmental waters

The Department of Agriculture, Environment and Rural Affairs (DAERA) has stocked the following waters with takeable fish in December 2025:

McWhinney's Sausages invests £2.2m to increase productivity and growth

Economy Minister Dr Caoimhe Archibald has announced that Bangor-based McWhinney's Sausages is investing £2.2 million in new equipment to increase productivity and automation.