

Drinking Water Quality remains high across Northern Ireland – February 2026

The Drinking Water Inspectorate (DWI), which is responsible for regulating drinking water quality, has today published its Annual Report for 2024. It states that drinking water quality in Northern Ireland is of a high standard.

Drinking Water Inspectorate publishes 2024 report

The Drinking Water Inspectorate (DWI), which is responsible for regulating drinking water quality, has today published its Annual Report for 2024. It states that drinking water quality in Northern Ireland is of a high standard.

First Minister and deputy First Minister unveil memorial plaque for victims and survivors of Historical Institutional Abuse

First Minister Michelle O'Neill and deputy First Minister Emma Little-Pengelly today unveiled a memorial plaque at Parliament Buildings to honour all victims and survivors of Historical Institutional Abuse.

The Public Transport and Journey

Planning in Northern Ireland 2024/25 report published

The Public Transport and Journey Planning in Northern Ireland 2024/25 report has been published today.

Infrastructure Minister visits County Fermanagh to discuss roads and traffic issues

Infrastructure Minister Liz Kimmins visited County Fermanagh where she met with local residents and elected representatives and discussed a range of roads and traffic issues.