

UKAEA funds fusion training with Edinburgh and York universities

£7.8 million investment in master's degree training will create new opportunities at the University of York and the University of Edinburgh.