

UKHSA publishes latest survey on healthcare-associated infections

The report finds that overall healthcare-associated infections were present in 7.6% of patients, a 1% increase on the last reported figures in 2016.