

UKHSA reminds public to stay tick aware this summer

The latest annual report on common animal-associated infections shows more than 1,500 cases of Lyme disease in 2024.