

UN General Assembly: Foreign Secretary says global action will help drive UK government priorities

Foreign Secretary calls for action on security, migration, climate, economic growth and development at her first UNGA meeting as Foreign Secretary.