

Unlicensed director of Leicester security company convicted

Daniel Street, the owner of DCS Security Services, has been convicted for failing to hold the required SIA licence for the role.