

Update from the Executive Director of the EUIPO

September 23, 2020 About the EUIPO

Update from the Executive Director of the EUIPO

The Executive Director of the EUIPO, Christian Archambeau, has released a new video update on the current situation at the Office, in particular the return to the EUIPO's premises after nearly six months of teleworking for the majority of staff.

Mr. Archambeau also gave an update on recent filing trends, including the increase in applications from China, as well as the progress of projects under the Strategic Plan 2025, which was launched in July.

Watch the video:

[embedded content]