

Update on 2 specialist review requirements for male patients already taking valproate

A review by 2 specialists will remain in place for patients starting valproate under 55 years of age.