

Urgent review into foreign financial interference in UK politics

An independent review, led by Philip Rycroft, into foreign financial interference in UK politics has been commissioned by the government.