

Veterinary Medicines Digital Service update: changes to reference product selection

From March 2026, applicants using the Veterinary Medicines Digital Service (VMDS) will only be able to select valid, authorised reference products for certain application types.