

Waste company prosecuted for ignoring audit at Notts site

A Midlands-based waste company and a partner in the business have been prosecuted for failing to comply with a demand for information about materials accepted.