

Water pollution probes net £2.1m to improve River Trent catchment

Investigations by the Environment Agency into water pollution has brought a contribution of £2.1 million from Severn Trent Water Limited to a river charity.