

We call on all parties to cease grave violations against children and to comply fully with their obligations under international law: UK statement at the UN Security Council

Statement by Jennifer MacNaughtan, UK Minister Counsellor, at the Security Council meeting on Children in Armed Conflict.