

We encourage the Syrian government to continue to prioritise women's meaningful participation in the political transition and ensure a representative and inclusive political process: UK statement at the UN Security Council

Statement by Ambassador Barbara Woodward, UK Permanent Representative to the UN, at the UN Security Council meeting on Syria.