

West Midlands to become Government centre for Transport and Infrastructure with new Campus to accelerate regional growth and delivery

Communities across the West Midlands will benefit from new high-skilled career opportunities after the government announced a new Transport and Infrastructure Campus, harnessing local expertise to deliver better public inve...