

West Midlands to benefit from recent trade deals

The automotive sector in the West Midlands is set to benefit from new trade deals with India and the US that slashes tariffs and boosts access to the world's fastest growing economy.