

Work paused on the Carlisle flood risk management scheme for the winter

The Environment Agency has taken the decision to temporarily pause construction of phase 1 of the Carlisle flood risk management scheme during the winter months.