

World Cup booze ban for 7,300 offenders thanks to crime-cutting alcohol tags

Streets will be safer as thousands of offenders are to be banned from drinking alcohol during the World Cup this summer as part of the Government's commitment to cut booze-fuelled crime.